Heritage Inventory (HI) Number:

Listing Authority: HI

Extent of Registration:

Statement of Significance:

Built of hand-made bricks in 1906 and 1907 by Andrew McKay to a design by Tobias Kelly, the Federation style Cobram homestead is of state architectural significance. Its well-preserved collection of Wunderlich ceilings and cornices, a wide variety of superbly carved mantels and tiled fireplaces, original light fittings, and its articles of furniture hand-crafted specifically for certain rooms at the time of construction, demonstrate a combination of decorative with utilitarian elements rare in its integrity.
