Victorian Heritage Database Report

The Red Mill

Location:
62 Monbulk Road, Belgrave VIC 3160 - Property No 57569

Heritage Status / Level of Significance:
Included in Heritage Overlay

Heritage Inventory (HI) Number:

Listing Authority: HI

Heritage Overlay Number: HO23

Statement of Significance:
What is of significance?
The Red Mill, 62 Monbulk Road, Belgrave and the model of the red windmill which is attached to the building.

How is it significant?
The Red Mill, 62 Monbulk Road, Belgrave is of local historical and social significance.

Why is it significant?
Of local historical and social significance as a popular café and landmark during the 1940s and 50s and a manifestation of the popularity of tourism to the Dandenongs.

It has a role in the artistic community as home to the Sherbrooke Art Gallery which is focussed on the work of local artists.

RNE Criterion A.4

Description

A single storey weatherboard building with a corrugated iron roof and a broad gable end facing the street with strapped fibro-cement infill and timber lattice below the apex. There is a splayed ingoing entrance to the centre flanked by large fixed sash timber-framed windows. Skillion verandahs along the side elevations have been enclosed and there is a small addition to the left hand side. The building is connected to an adjacent single-storey weatherboard cottage which has a corrugated iron roof and strapped fibro-cement infill to gable ends. The front verandah to the cottage has been enclosed with fibro-cement sheet.

Heritage Study / Consultant	Yarra Ranges - Shire of Yarra Ranges Heritage Study, Context Pty Ltd, 2000
Construction Date Range
Architect / Designer
Municipality	YARRA RANGES SHIRE
Other names
Hermes number	115779
Property number	57569

This place/object may also be State heritage listed. Check the Victorian Heritage Database. For further details, contact the local Council or go to Planning Schemes Online