

Victorian Heritage Database Report

Superintendents House; Coranderrk Aboriginal Station (former)

Location:

79 Barak Lane, Healesville VIC 3777

Heritage Status / Level of Significance:

Included in Heritage Overlay

Heritage Inventory (HI) Number: H8022-0006

Listing Authority: HI

Heritage Overlay Number: HO85

Statement of Significance:

The sole surviving building of the Coranderrk Aboriginal Station which was once the largest Aboriginal Station in Victoria. (Tansley, 1978)

Despite alterations, a substantial and sole survivor of buildings associated with Coranderrk, a prominent Victorian aboriginal mission station for sixty years following establishment in 1863. (NT, 3902)

Description

The two-storey Superintendent's house (0027) is located approximately 400m along the entrance road to the Coranderrk Aboriginal Station property. It was constructed of hand made bricks and has a small single-storey extension on its east wall, and a front verandah and entrance. Its dimensions are 13 metres north-south by 12.5 metres east-west (including verandah). (Heritage Victoria)

| | |
|-------------------------|--------------------|
| Construction Date Range | 1883 - 1883 |
| Architect / Designer | |
| Municipality | YARRA RANGES SHIRE |
| Other names | |
| Hermes number | 115838 |
| Property number | |

This place/object may also be State heritage listed. Check the Victorian Heritage Database. For further details, contact the local Council or go to Planning Schemes Online