Heritage Status / Level of Significance:

Registered

Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) Number: H0185

Listing Authority: VHR

Heritage Overlay Number: HO880*Statement of Significance:

A square gothic timber pavilion reputedly prefabricated in Sydney c 1838 and erected in Geelong. Cladding is quirk bead weatherboards. The original thatch roof was replaced with shingles in 1854. When a permanent stone customs house was built in 1845 the building was used briefly as a telegraph office. Unaltered and well preserved, claimed to be the oldest building extant in Victoria, it now serves as a customs museum.

Register of the National Estate Citation:

Important as one of Victoria's oldest remaining buildings, believed to have been pre-fabricated in Sydney, and despite minor defacements retaining a certain charm by virtue of its pavilion design with concave roof profile and one remaining ogee-topped window.
