

Victorian Heritage Database Report
Tandarook Homestead

---

Location:

Shenfield Lane (formerly Curdie's Creek), COBDEN VIC 3266 - Property No B1098

Heritage Status / Level of Significance:

Local

Heritage Inventory (HI) Number:

Listing Authority: HI

Statement of Significance:

Built by the famous pioneer , Dr Daniel Curdie, MA,MD, JP who took up the property with this nephew, Daniel Mackinnon on October 8, 1840, an area of 27,686 acres. Dr Curdie was the first president of the Shire of Hampden and in his early years here combined the practice of his profession with pastoral pursuits - the first medical practitioner in the district. Possessed of high scholarly attainments, with academic tastes, his company was much sought after by intellectuals of the period. He was a keen student of natural history, and a ever-welcome guest at Tandarok was Baron von Muller, designer of Melbourne's Botanic Gardens. Subdivisions of the lands have taken place over the years.

Classified: Local: 03/08/1998

Heritage Study / Consultant
Construction Date Range
Architect / Designer
Municipality	CORANGAMITE SHIRE
Other names
Hermes number	67848
Property number	B1098

This place/object may also be State heritage listed. Check the Victorian Heritage Database. For further details, contact the local Council or go to Planning Schemes Online